In Memoriam

President Kennedy once said, "Ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country." Bob Bowman did just this—he served his country by being in the military service. He was a young man who believed in freedom. Bob gave his life so that we might live free.

Al Hood served his country in another way, he went to work. He was always a happy person whom everyone knew. Even after his high school years he did not change.

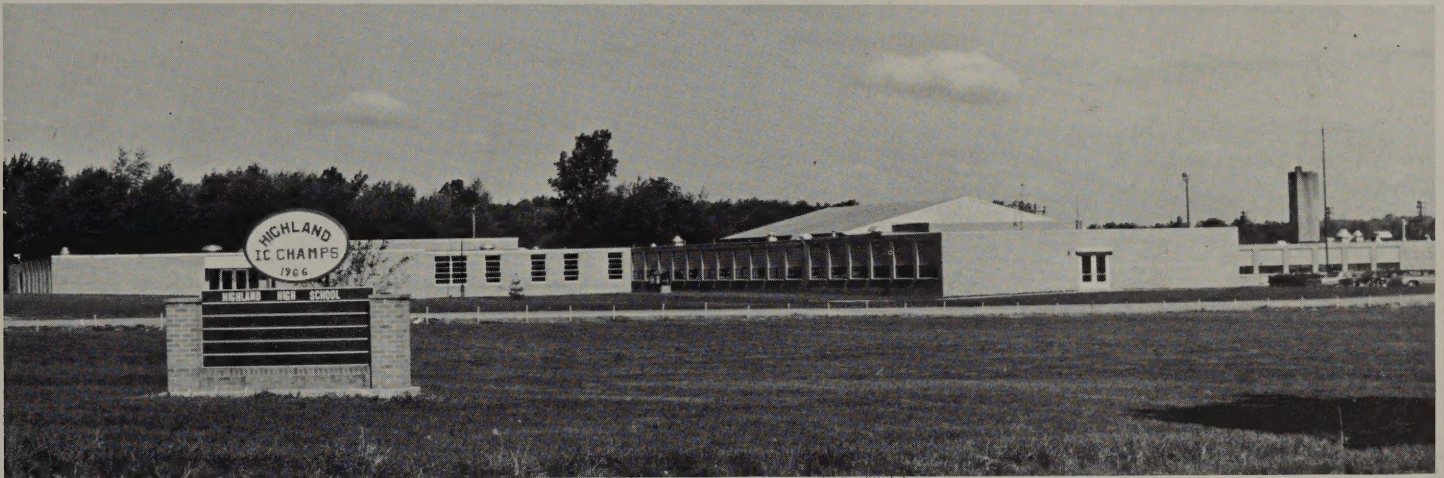

Robert Bowman

Alan Hood

ALMA MATER

Oh, Highland High School now to thee,
We sing our song of loyalty!
We sing thy glory and thy fame,
All praises to thy honored name.
Come and join us while we sing,
We'll make the near-by hillsides ring.
Our faith in thee will never die,
We'll always love thee, Highland High.

FOREWORD

The waves of time wash up on beaches
And with the tide return
Into the deep blue ocean
The waves again return

The sun it always reaches
Into the waters still
And memories of the tide
Are found there at one's will

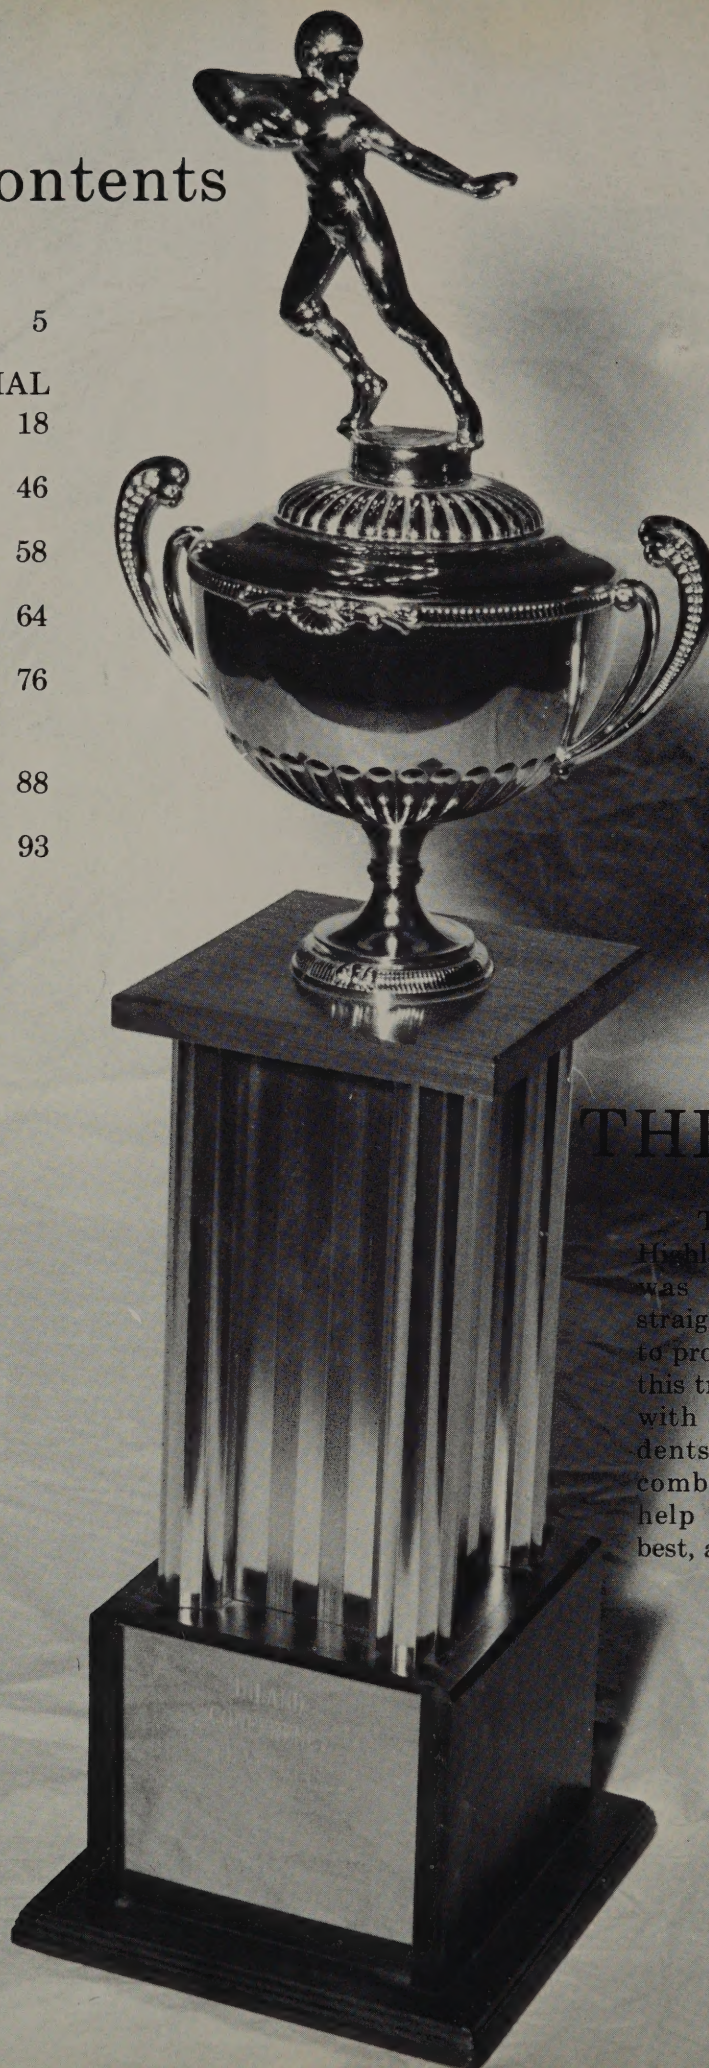

At Highland was an ocean
Of knowledge to be learned
Its depths were challenged daily
By the students there within

And time will wash away beaches
As the sun at its brightest never could
But let the tide never take from us
The happiness we shared and could

Forever more remember
And always call our own
Oh Highland High, You'll always be with us
In the knowledge in which we've grown

THE CHAMPS

The champs, that's what Highland High's football team was again for the second straight year. This trophy goes to prove it. Highland received this trophy because of a team with determination and students with spirit. When you combine the two you cannot help but come up with the best, and Highland is the best.

STUNT NIGHT

Stunt Night is a time where students have the opportunity to show their talents in short humorous skits. These skits are presented to the public for their entertainment and also for the students' own entertainment. This year's Stunt Night provided some unusual skits.

Lil' Mary Mod Bod.

Sergeant Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band!

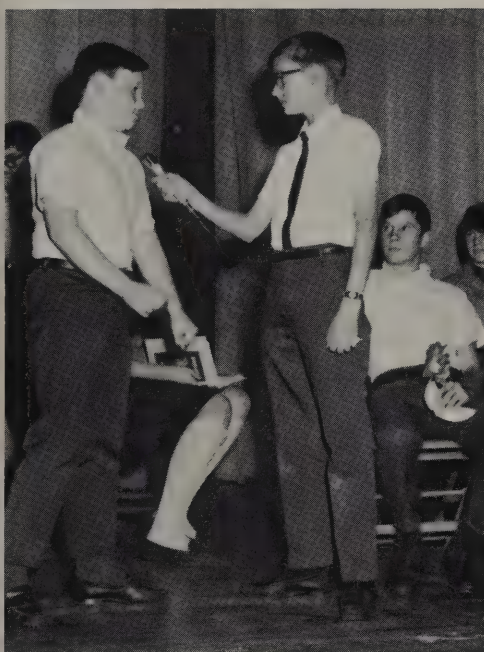

Give my your hand in marriage?

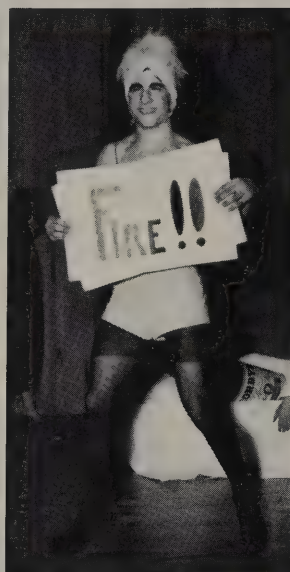

I don't believe all this.

"How do you call your lover girl?"

The freshmen have an interview on happiness.

My, Bill, how you've changed

Hippies, hippies, and more hippies!

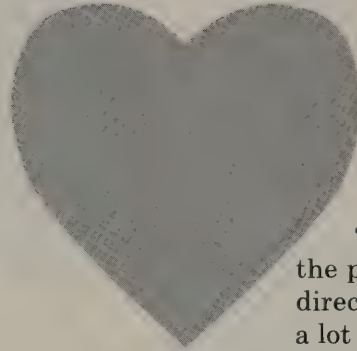

I don't think he should have taken up playing the horn!

The case of the missing fortune cookies?

"OUR HEARTS WERE YOUNG AND GAY"

"Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" was the play put on by the senior class under the direction of Mrs. Mary Lou Ludwig. It took a lot of hard work from all who were involved, but on November 10, 1967, it was produced for the whole community to see. The play contained many humorous parts such as: bedbugs that bit Cornelia, Emily's futile attempt to blow up her water wings, jumping up on the bunkbeds, chasing a stowaway, and those great "safety pockets" which delighted the audience.

The senior students participating in the production of the play were the following: Front row: Jean Vinecourt, Judy Rohacs, Mary Jo Becks, Kirk Cobb, Becky Brown, Craig Cobb, Mary Ann Bonezzi, Debbie Glaisa, Bob Benson. Second row: Ken Luttner, Dave Wecker, Judy Farnsworth, Craig Peebles, Debbie Bures, Paulette Jackson, Bill Kozman, Kim Woodling, Steve Glick, Tom Rojack.

"What? Act? Of course I can. Out of my way!"

"Emily, Cornelia's going to be sick, right now! What are we going to do?"

That Monsieur De La Croix sure has some technique!

The expressions on the faces of these Hornets' fans and band members show how exciting our 1967 Homecoming game was.

Homecoming was a night to be remembered, not only by the queen and her court, but also by every fan who watched Highland tromp over Avon. It also proved to be a time of reunion for the alumni. The great Homecoming football game was the spark that started off an enchanting Homecoming weekend.

Our happy Homecoming queen and her smiling attendants pose with their proud fathers. In the front row are: Debbie Thompson, Cindy Bush, Denise Konyha, Queen Peggy Wolf, Jean Vinecourt, Paulette Jackson, and Debbie Bures. The fathers are Mr. Thompson, Mr. Bush, Mr. Granger, Mr. Wolf, Mr. Vinecourt, Mr. Jackson, and Mr. Bures.

The game starts with the great Highland Hornets entering the field. . .

The action begins with the snap of the football. . .

Ken Luttner goes for a touchdown as Highland's offense goes to work. . .

Our queen and her court watch the Hornets as they start the game off right by lighting up the scoreboard. . .

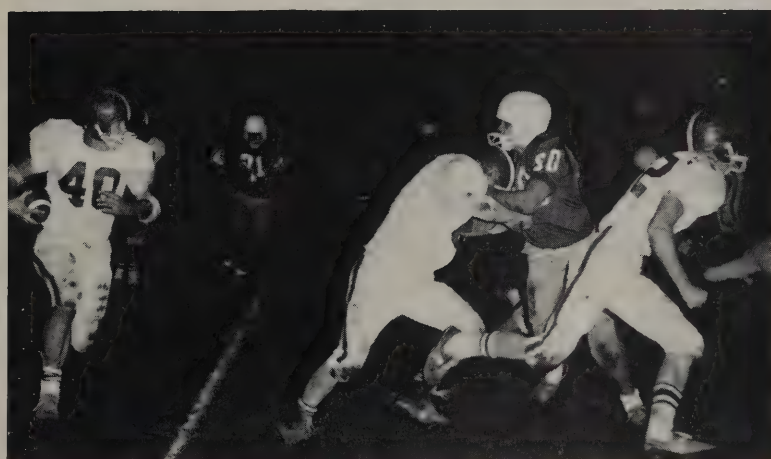

Highland's defense shows Avon what they can do. . .

At the end of the second quarter Luttner again runs away with the ball. . .

Our queen and her court cheer on the Hornets to their victory. . .

The Hornets keep right on mowing down Avon. Right to the end of the game. . .

When the final score was Highland 62 and Avon 22.

The wish for the Homecoming was that it be a night to remember always.

Our pretty queen, Peggy Wolf, is crowned by tri-captain Dave Snyder.

After the crowning came the queen's dance which was set with a slow and dreamy pace.

The beautiful queen, her lovely court and handsome escorts are Bill Kozman, Debbie Bures, George Hendrock, Jean Vinecourt, Craig Cobb, Paulette Jackson, tri-captains—Lee Cekan-ski, Dave Snyder, Ken Luttner, our queen Peggy Wolf, Debbie Thompson, Kirk Cobb, Denise Konyha, Joe Ferricci, Cindy Bush, and Steve Wright.

PREPARATIONS

The juniors have artists in their class!

The boys work hard to get the decorations up.

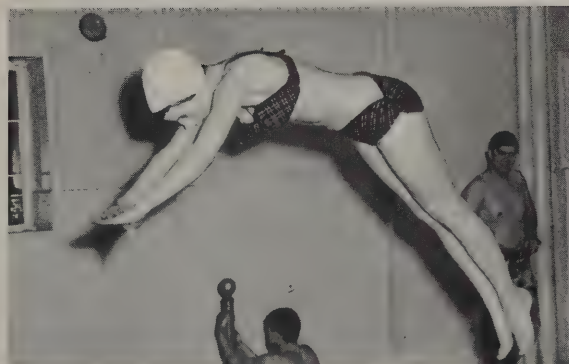

A girl could get lost in this net!

ACTIVITIES

Now here is a "pro" golfer!

Bowling means "action" to everyone.

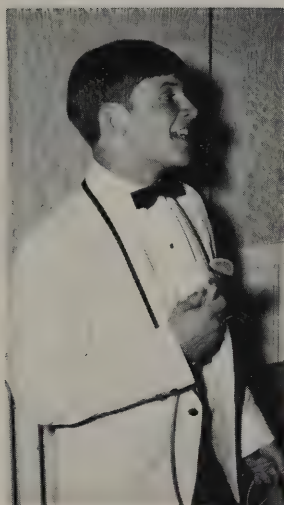

A well executed dive!

Football is out Mr. Kemp; try another stance.

PROM

BANQUET

Mike Cavanaugh, the junior class president, extends a welcome to the people at the banquet.

Brett Reardon and Dave Zeile read the prophecy about the senior class.

Charlette Johnson and Kirk Cobb read the senior class will.

Everyone who attended the banquet enjoyed a delicious dinner.

"A VISIT TO NEPTUNE'S KINGDOM"

Neptune's kingdom set the scene for April 26, 1968. This was the day of the memorable Junior-Senior Prom. It started off with swimming at the Jewish Center, putt-putt golf at Montrose, bowling and pool at Riviera Lanes, and a banquet at the Brown Derby. Then came the most magnificent part of all, the dance. In the atmosphere of the ocean, the juniors and seniors danced to a great band. No one can describe the enjoyment and memories which everyone has to remember from that night.

Paulette Jackson and James Kerns enjoy some of the refreshments at the prom.

Music and memories filled the air at the Junior-Senior Prom.

SENIOR BOYS vs. FACULTY

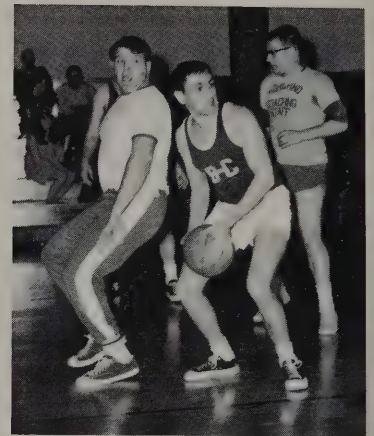

Really, Bill, I don't think worshipping the floor is doing any good!

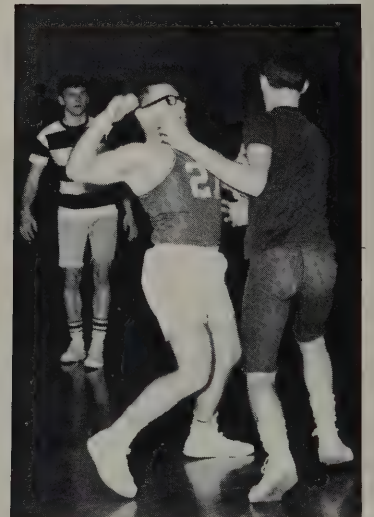

Our faculty beat our senior boys by a very close score. It was a game of skills and fun for all who participated.

We really have some talented ballet dancers in our school.

Hey, Ya better get rid of that ball!

Whose turn to swing the next punch?

CHEERLEADERS

Our cheerleaders keep the spectators enthused.

Our cheerleading squads, under the directions of Mrs. Ramey, have contributed the spirit we needed to help our teams to victories. Through their efforts they have kept our school spirit alive.

Mrs. Ramey is the advisor for our cheerleaders. She always helps them with their cheers if they need it.

Practice makes our cheerleaders perfect when cheering.

Our J-V squad is: Clockwise: Karen Scheuermann, Debbie Thompson, Barb Polasky, and (center) Mary Ann Russell.

The varsity cheerleaders that pep up our sports are: Glenna Sherman, Mary Ann Bonezzi, Deb Bures, Becky Newberry, Chris Benson, and Mary Leach.

High school life is student life. . Learning, thinking, living, and growing. It is the time in which we decide what path we will pursue after our student life is over. Our student life is memories of achievements we have done and are now doing. It all starts with our first walk into this hall. . .

After going through this hall we end up at our lockers. They usually have mementoes and books. . .

STUDENT LIFE

Then there is that intersection by the home economics room!
With luck you can make it through. . .

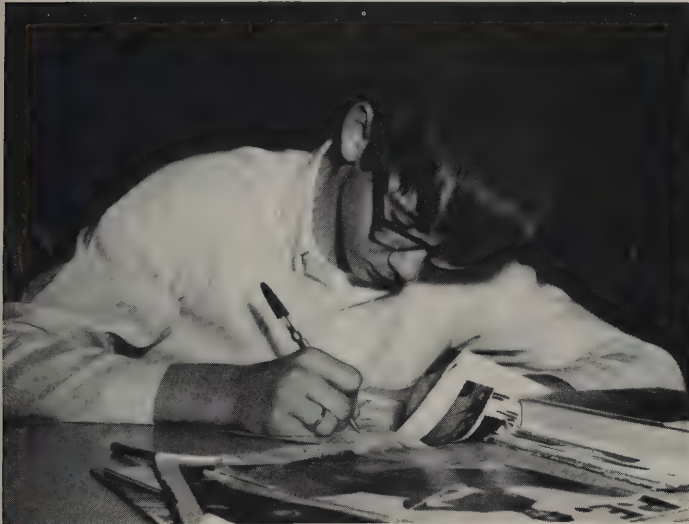

Student life is also creating something from your own ideas or . . .

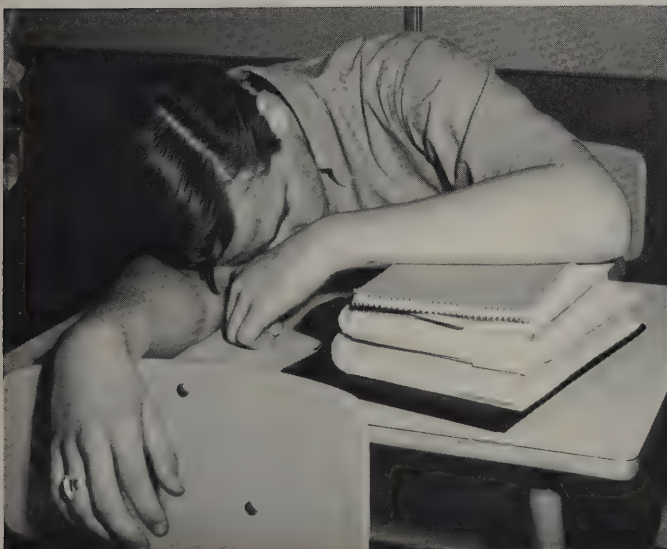

. . .recreating something that was originated by someone other than yourself.

A student's life can be one of mental gymnastics. . .

. . .the physical gymnastics. . .

. . .or the sleeping gymnastics which help to relieve the tensions.

A student's life can be professional guidance. . .

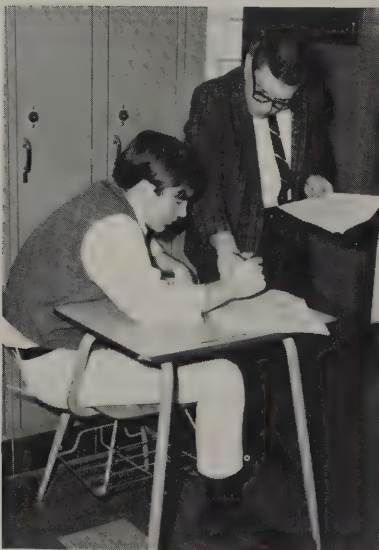

or the help he gets from a friend.

It is being a part of a group having fun. . .

or part of a pair.

It can be a teacher filling in a student. . .

or another student filling in a friend.
